

Organisation

The three infrastructure providers SWX Group, SIS Group and Telekurs Group were merged under the roof of Swiss Financial Market Services at the beginning of 2008. The company covers the entire value chain of the financial market infrastructure - from securities trading via clearing, settlement and custody through to financial information and payment transfers. The organisation of Swiss Financial Market Services reflects these areas of business.

